OPTILAND SPEED CAMP

From the idea of ...

Massimo Giorgiani and Dragan Gasic, experts and the coaches of the Optimist and the 420 classes, started their experience in the eighties and gained till present days an international experience of absolute value.

Format

The formula of dividing participants in uniformed groups according to their age and skill, allows the following of the athletes in thorough way, according to their needs and time for all days of the meeting which is divided into two theoretical sessions: the first as the preparation and the second as the comment concerning the sea session.

Particular attention is dedicated to the preparation of the boat, the treatment of the materials and the organization of the water activities in order to optimize time.

Aims and the targets of the project

Aimed to boys and girls from the age of 9, seeks the transmission of passion for sea and sailing in its most playful aspects; an international aspect allows not only the technical exchange but also cultural, through the different ways of living sports and nature.

of the parents or escorts is very much welcomed.

Boats in use

The potential boat charter could be arranged with the organising staff. There are around 20 complete Optimist boats available, sail excluded, at the cost of € 120.

Technical staff

With Massimo and Dragan, there will also be Mattia Pressich, four time world champion, and Tine Moze, coach of the Slovene 420 and Optimist national team, as well as Finn class competitor Massimo Giorgiani e Dragan Gasic tecnici ed allenatori della classe Optimist e 420 hanno iniziato negli anni ottanta maturando ad oggi una esperienza internazionale di assoluto valore.
